U.S. Web Design Standards

Drupal

The Standards and me

From "Do we have to?" to "Yes please!"

@TODO in today's session

- What exactly ARE the U.S. Web Design Standards?
- How (and why) to use the Standards
- Demo the USWDS Drupal theme
- Notable Drupal modules

What are the U.S Web Design Standards?

- Not a requirement
- Advice and guidance
- Code library

What does it mean to "use" the Standards?

- Follow some/all of the advice and guidance
- Use some/all of the library code
- Write markup with the Standards in mind

Why should I use the Standards?

- Accessibility
- Usability
- Responsive design
- Authoritative aesthetic

The Drupal theme: USWDS

Demo time!

Notable Drupal modules

- Paragraphs + USWDS Paragraphs
- Panels / Panelizer (D7, soon D8)
- Collapse Text

</session>
<questions>

—

Thank you for listening!

- Reach me at: brockfanning@gmail.com
- The Standards: https://standards.usa.gov
- The Drupal theme: https://www.drupal.org/project/uswds